Secure Bids for Annual Repairs.
A report of Trustees Boeres for the building committee made recommendations for repairs and improvements at the various schools. These annual repairs are made during the summer vacation period. The estimate of the repairs to be made, exclusive of those at the high school and some at No. 2, which have not been decided upon, will amount to about $7,000. After the report had been discussed it was decided to let the matter to the building committee to secure bids on the work and have such bids ready for action at the next meeting of the board. The action applies to all work except that at No. 2 school which will be further investigated by the building committee before any action is taken.

The report of the committee was that at No. 1 school outside woodwork be repainted, a number of desks sanded and varnished and a new smoke pipe be fitted to the heat. Britain Defers Thanksgiving

King's Illness Interferes With Plans for Ceremony Celebrating His Recovery—Condition Satisfactory, Progress Will Be Told.

London, June 1 (AP).—The dean of Westminster announced today that the Thanksgiving service for King George's recovery planned for June 16 has been indefinitely postponed. This announcement followed the physician's bulletin that the king's recovery was likely to be long drawn out.

An official announcement at noon today said that King George's condition was satisfactory but his progress would be tedious.

A bulletin issued by his physicians at Windsor said:

"His majesty the king passed a good night. The absence, so far, is following its normal course which in the nature of things must be tedious."

"We accordingly advise that the Thanksgiving service should be deferred to a later date. As his majesty's general condition is now satisfactory there is no necessity to issue bulletins every day."

The Thanksgiving ceremony had been set for June 16 at Westminster Abbey to allow the country to give thanks for the king's recovery from his illness last winter.

It has been disclosed that delay in announcing his majesty's new trouble was occasioned by his own wish that it be not allowed to disturb normal polling activities for the general elections. The sovereign has been confined to his room since Sunday with an abscess at the old lung incision scar but there was no public announcement of his indisposition until the morning of the election.

It was said today that King George was keeping a sharp eye on the political situation as he lay abed at Windsor Castle, conscious of his greatest royal prerogatives, that of summoning a new leader to direct his government. The statement of physicians yesterday that he was able to transact state business was considered as intended to still any apprehension in regard to developments in the political situation.

Several Cases In City Court

John Roosa, 58 Pine street, Robert Roosa of 3 Converse street and Horsey Dawson of Abel street, three negroes, were arrested by the police Friday on a warrant sworn out by Frank Lasher of 69 Pine street, who charged all three with assaulting him at a gas station where he was employed. This morning all three entered pleas of not guilty and the hearing was adjourned to Tuesday.

Granville Quick, who is known as "Turk", was arrested by Officer Murphy at his home, 37 Jansen avenue, and lodged in the cell block in the city hall on a charge of public intoxication. Later Quick was removed to the county jail and his hearing was adjourned until Monday as it was stated he was too intoxicated to be arraigned.

Anna May Valentine of West Union street, arrested for driving a car without having her license papers, produced the papers in court and was discharged. She had forgotten to take them with her when she went for an auto ride.

Harry Gray of Jersey City, arrested for speeding, forfeited $25 cash bail for failure to appear in court.

Dies of Shock and a Broken Heart

Omaha, Neb., June 1 (AP).—George Debs of Omaha died last night of what physicians described as shock and "a broken heart."

Last Monday night Debs returned home from a hospital, where he had undergone a major operation, to be informed that his wife had run away with another man, taking his life's savings of $1,600 and leaving six small children at home.

Examining a trunk where he had the money hidden, Debs found it missing. He collapsed and was returned to the hospital, where he died.

Labor Party Leads Does Not Control British Election

Liberal and David Lloyd George Seem to Hold Balance of Power in Commons—Another Election Possible in Autumn—Conservative Party Leads in Popular Vote.

London, June 1 (AP).—The immediate future of the British government was in doubt today. The Liberal party of David Lloyd George apparently held the key to the political situation which has arisen as an outgrowth of Labor's great but insufficient victory in the parliamentary elections of Thursday.

Although the British Labor party rode down the Conservative government of Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin to a decisive defeat, almost complete returns showed it lacked 20 of the 308 seats necessary for a majority in the House of Commons.

The standing was: Labor 288; Conservatives 259; Liberals 55, others 7.

Several possibilities suggested themselves:

First, that Stanley Baldwin, prime minister in the present or Conservative government, would go to the House of Commons and fight for control, depending on Liberal votes to keep him from a vote of no-confidence.

Second, that Baldwin would resign, either immediately or after a no-confidence vote, and that Ramsay MacDonald, as leader of the numerically greatest party would be asked to form a government.

And, third, that the political stalemate which has resulted from the elections would shortly cause the downfall of any government which is formed and necessitate new elections, probably in the autumn.

Situation Hinges on Lloyd George.
The entire situation seemed hinged on what the Liberals and David Lloyd George, with their balance of power in the Commons, would do.

Mr. Lloyd George in 1923 made Great Britain's first Labor government possible but he has said in the present election campaign he would not again sanction a Liberal-Labor alliance.

If Premier Baldwin does decide to try to maintain his government he would have to court Liberal support, and even with the vote of the entire Liberal bloc he would find himself with a bare majority on any clean-cut party question. If the Conservative-Liberal coalition was no more stable than the Labor-Liberal coalition in 1923-24 downfall of the government on some important question would be only a matter of a short time.

Chamberlain's Prophetic Hope.
The prime minister himself is spending the week end at Chequers Court, country home of British prime ministers, and had nothing to say. There may, however, have been a prophetic note in the words of Sir Austen Chamberlain, foreign minister in Baldwin's cabinet. He said:

"I hope Mr. Baldwin will face the House of Commons and leave to Lloyd George and the Liberals the responsibility of the situation they have created."

The prime minister is not compelled to offer the resignations of his government to the King until the House of Commons meets—in this case June 25—and votes no-confidence on an important measure. It was understood he would confer with other leaders of his party at Chequers Court over the week end with reference to the situation and reorganization of his cabinet, seven members of which were not re-elected.

Stability Dependent on Liberals.
Should Ramsay MacDonald be asked to form a government its stability would depend entirely upon such Liberal support as he could win to it. Various members of the "left wing" of the Liberal party are known to favor a Liberal regime, as opposed to a Tory government, and enough support might be gained from them to make a MacDonald government function under ordinary circumstances with a majority.

There loomed as inevitably, however, the time when the Laborites, with their Socialist background, would be found diametrically opposed to both Liberals and Conservatives, whose respective principles are much more akin, and then a no-confidence vote on an important measure would result. This would necessitate the calling of a new election in which the government defeated in the Commons would carry its fight straight to the people.

MacDonald Opposes New Election.
Ramsay MacDonald, Labor leader, declared today he would do everything within his power to prevent the necessity of another English general election within the next two years. He told interviewers: "If I can prevent it there shall be no disturbance of the country by an election within the next two years."

12 Districts Unreported.
With thirteen constituencies out of 615 still unreported, the Labor party was leading in the new House of Commons with 287 seats, but was 21 seats short of the 308 necessary for a clear majority.

Additional returns and revisions changed the lineup slightly from previous reports, the new figures this afternoon being:

Conservatives 259
Labor 287
Liberals 55
Others 7

The constituencies still unreported were mostly in faraway districts, such as the Orkneys, and Shetland.

Maniac Who Killed Three Found Dead

Police Believe Man Sobered Overnight, Realized the Tragedy and Leaped In Front of Train—Two Policemen and a Civilian Murdered.

Chicago, June 1 (AP).—Ferdinand Preuss, the maniac who shot three men dead and wounded four others while, in a drunken fury yesterday, was decapitated today by a Chicago and Northwestern Railroad train. A body found on the right of way was identified positively by a fishing license issued to Preuss. Police believed the man sobered overnight, realized the tragedy of yesterday and committed suicide.

The condition of Preuss' body indicated he had lain on the track awaiting for the train to run over him, police said.

Preuss, a war veteran and expert marksman, killed two policemen and a civilian yesterday and wounded two policemen and two civilians with a shotgun. The police were members of a squad sent to arrest him after neighbors heard him threaten to kill his wife.

Police got a call that a man was quarreling with his wife and threatening to kill her. Policeman John Lee Conley's detective squad went to the North Side flat where lived Preuss and his wife. It was just one of hundreds of similar calls that are received at police stations during the night, and policeman Conley and Herbert Hagberg, a member of his squad, walked leisurely around to the rear door, and to their death.

Two Policemen Slain.
The house that had been quiet when they approached echoed with the roar of a pumpgun as a charge of shot crashed through a window and tore into Conley's chest. A second roar and Hagberg's face nearly shot away, whirled, screamed, took a dozen steps, and fell dead.

Policeman Joseph J. Murphy, Conley's chauffeur who had remained in the car, seized a shotgun and started to the help of the other policeman. He had taken less than a dozen steps when Preuss' pumpgun blazed through a front window and Murphy fell badly wounded.

A second later Gus Karos, who lived three doors away from the Preuss home, and John Chorazak, another neighbor, both attracted by the shooting, met where Murphy had fallen. Karos had rushed out to meet his blind brother-in-law, Rudolph Krusche, who had been to a nearby store and was expected home.

Receives Charge in Back.
Another shot and Chorazak, who was standing not 10 feet from the window, fell dead. Karos jumped to shield with his body his brother-in-law who was just passing the house. As he did so the fifth shell in Preuss' gun was discharged and struck him in the back. He is expected to die.

Preuss, in a fury, pressed the trigger again and the hammer fell on an empty chamber. Police believe that is the only reason Krusche, the blind man, was not numbered among the victims.

The slayer a second later rushed out of the rear door of his home, stood cursing the bodies of Conley and Hagberg, and then fled into an alley after taking the policeman's shotgun and, it is believed, his revolver.

Preuss Foamed at Mouth.
In the alley Preuss met Frank Vodicka, who was running toward the scene of the shooting. Vodicka turned and ran into a narrow passageway when he saw Preuss, foaming at the mouth and aiming the shotgun point blank at him. Preuss fired one shell, then threw the weapon at Vodicka as the latter fled. The drink-crazed man was seen to take a pistol from his belt, wave it wildly, and run down the alley. That was the last seen of him.

Mrs. Rose Preuss, the slayer's wife, was found in the home of a neighbor, where she had taken refuge when her husband fired two shots at her before the police arrived.

DURANT SMILES AT REPORTS OF LOSSES
Paris, June 1 (AP).—Reports that he had lost heavily in Wall Street and had been forced to liquidate some of his assets brought smiles to the face of W. C. Durant, American financier and automobile manufacturer today.

All he would say was: "You've heard these rumors before."

Cotton Beat Smith.
Coulson Court, Eng., June 1 (AP).—Henry Cotton, British professional golfer, defeated Horton Smith, young American pro, six up and five to play in an exhibition match at 25 holes today.

and in the English and Scottish Universities.

The Popular Vote.
A striking feature was the size of the Conservative popular vote, slightly in excess of that polled by the Laborites. The totals were:

Conservatives 259
Labor 287
Liberals 55
Independents 7
Communists 0

Total 22,278,365

A total of 745,167 votes were cast for women candidates, 13 of whom were elected and 42 defeated.

Cap Exercises at Kingston Hospital Friday Evening

Eight Members of Nurses' Training School Received Their Caps at Appropriate Exercises Held in Living Room of Nurses' Home.

Eight of the student nurses of the Nurses' Training School of the Kingston Hospital were presented with caps at the capping exercises held Friday evening in the living room at the Nurses' Home, adjoining the hospital. The students who were capped are Ethel Coles, Agnes Van DeMark, Phyllis Cottrell, Lillian Groves, Ethel Jones, Ruth Johnston, Margaret Schupelack and Helen Kniffen.

The large living room had been artistically decorated with palms and cap flowers and the evening's program opened with the singing of "America the Beautiful" by the members of the school, which was followed by the invocation by the Rev. Father Hornby, Dr. A. A. Stern, of the hospital staff presided.

Miss Saxe sang delightfully two solos, "Absent" and the "Slave Song", which was followed by a piano solo, "Silvery Waves", by Miss VanDeMark.

The Rev. Dr. Lucas Boere delivered the address of the evening. At the close of his address Miss Spink sang a group of three songs, "The Robin's Song", "The Green Hills of Ireland" and "Danny Boy". Miss Anderson accompanied her at the piano.

Miss Clarke recited "Wolverine", and Miss Quest rendered a piano solo.

Miss Holmes, superintendent of the Nursing School, then presented the caps and capes to the eight student nurses, and the exercises closed with the singing of "Star Spangled Banner", followed by the benediction by Father Hornby.

Refreshments were served and dancing followed the exercises, which were largely attended by the friends of the student nurses.

May Settle Church Trouble in Mexico

Archbishop Ruiz, Named Apostolic Delegate in Mexico, Believes Re-establishment of Church Services More Important Than Revision of Constitution.

Washington, June 1 (AP).—The movement toward settlement of the long-standing differences between the Mexican government and the Roman Catholic Church has been advanced another step by the appointment of Archbishop Ruiz, president of the Mexican Bishops' Conference to be Apostolic delegate in Mexico.

He is expected to leave for Mexico City within two weeks to begin negotiations looking toward re-establishment of the Catholic ecclesiastical organization in that country, at the invitation of President Portes Gil and with the sanction, implied in his appointment, of the Holy See.

The differences between the church and state in Mexico have extended over a quarter century. Growing out of constitutional provisions looking to their separation, they culminated several years ago in the nationalization of church property throughout the republic, expulsion of foreign priests and the closing of church schools.

Archbishop Ruiz has expressed his belief that the re-establishment of church services in Mexico is the principal objective to be desired, and he is not expected to take up the question of a revision of the republic's constitution in the forthcoming negotiations. He is understood to regard the question of church property and land, held by the government under that constitution, as secondary.

Aerial Television Soon a Reality

Washington, June 1 (AP).—Flight tests will soon be made of television apparatus calculated by its inventor, C. Francis Jenkins, Washington physicist, to reproduce conditions as seen from an airplane on a screen miles away.

Moving panoramas of countryside—in wartime instantaneous recording at headquarters of observations made by planes back of the enemy lines—as broadcast by the "aerial television" will soon be a scientific reality, he said.

Successful experiments with the new process have already been conducted with ground models from a fixed base, he announced, and a cabin monoplane had been specially constructed for practical test purposes.

Leaders Plan For Congress Recess

Summer Recess Desired by President and Administration Leaders, But Not Until Farm Legislation Is Complete—Vote on Tariff Bill in Fall.

Washington, June 1 (AP).—Congressional leaders had a fairly clean field today to develop their plans for an all-summer recess of the special session in sympathy with the expressed desire of President Hoover.

Senate and House were both in adjournment over the week end and the only meeting called was that of the joint farm bill conference committee, which had already made considerable progress toward an agreement on all sections in which the two chambers failed to agree except the export debenture proposal.

The Senate is expected to be called upon by its conference group to eliminate the debenture plan from its farm bill next week, and the House is prepared to take early action on the measure to provide for the 1930 census and subsequent reapportionment of the number of representatives allotted to each state.

Although some doubt has been expressed as to the willingness of the debenture advocates in the Senate to permit elimination of their proposal from the farm bill, administration leaders are counting on such action and are inclined to regard arrangements for disposition of tariff legislation as their principal task in the effort to comply with the president's views on summer recess plans.

President Hoover's Opinion.
The chief executive's opinion on that subject, as expressed in response to inquiries of newspaper correspondents, was outlined in the following statement:

"The majority leaders, both Senator Watson and Congressman Tillison, are united in their recommendation to me that there should be no recess in the special session until there should be a few weeks to accommodate the Senate finance committee in its hearings on the tariff bill unless there is a completely fixed agreement in the Senate as to an early date upon which a vote will be taken on the bill, with a further agreed period for debate on the conference reports, which would assure a final vote in the Senate as early as possible."

"The interest of the country obviously necessitates the rapid determination of both these questions, and I am entirely in accord with their views."

Senator Watson Fixes Date.
Senator Watson has tentatively decided to move for a recess from June 12 to September 9, with November 9 fixed as the date for the Senate's vote on the tariff bill and November 25 for action on the report of the conference committee which will be called upon in the meantime to adjust differences with the House.

CARRIES PINT ON HIP, CAN'T BE PROSECUTED.

Beloit, Wis., June 1 (AP).—Richard Everhart is the first man to profit by the repeal of the state dry law in Wisconsin.

Arrested by a chief of police in a village near here for having a pint of liquor on his hip Everhart was brought before the municipal court judge.

"Flead guilty to what?" asked Judge Chester Christensen.

"Possession of an intoxicating beverage, with alcoholic content in excess of one-half of one per cent," said the officer.

"But that's not an offense against Wisconsin law," said the judge, pointing out that the state court has no jurisdiction.

Everhart returned home a free man.

STORIES OF TERROR DURING EARTHQUAKES.

Prince Rupert, B. C., June 1 (AP).—Stories of terror caused to residents of the Queen Charlotte Islands during a series of earthquakes this week have been brought here by the steamer Prince John.

Three quakes on Sunday morning and Tuesday rocked Moresby, Graham and the smaller islands of the group. At Lockport the peak of a high mountain was reported to have toppled over, and near Sanepit 500 feet of beach slid into the sea.

Belgian Question Only Obstacle in Way of Settlement

Reparations Experts Face Only One Problem, Which Berlin Is Expected to Remove—Quick Progress on Other Phases of Settlement.

Paris, June 1 (AP).—A single question remained in the way of a settlement of the reparations problem at noon today and the experts were awaiting word from Berlin which it was expected would remove that.

The question was that of remuneration to Belgium for German marks left in that country after the occupation. It was thought first to have been settled yesterday with agreement between Belgium and Germany to handle the matter with private negotiations after the experts' conference had closed.

Overnight it developed, however, that while Belgium had appointed its representative for such negotiation, Germany did not name its man. Emile Francqui, head of the Belgium delegation here, refused to sign any settlement or conference report until the negotiations were under way.

The experts were given reason to believe that the situation merely was the result of an omission at Berlin and that it would be remedied shortly.

Agreement on German Demand.
Quick progress was made during the morning with other phases of the settlement and an agreement was reached on the German demand that some of the burden of the last 22 annuities under the Young plan be lifted. This agreement included a promise that if the United States reduced the sum of the German creditors' debts to America there would also be a reduction in what Germany owed to the former allies.

It was also agreed that of the last 22 annuities a share of the present value of 1,000,000,000 marks (about $240,000,000) will be bought in immediately through a fund to which both the allies and the Germans will contribute.

Belgium's Depreciated Currency.
The Belgian demand to which the Germans have so strenuously objected has been that they be paid 37 annuities of 25,000,000 marks (about $6,000,000) to cover the depreciated currency. It was the German contention, in which many of the allied experts concurred, that the question was outside the scope of the conference.

Decrease Under Young Plan.
The present value of the amount Germany agrees to pay to the reparations creditors under the Young plan is finally accepted and ratified, is $9,000,000,000. It represents a decrease of $116,000,000,000 from the original claims filed by all the creditors with the Versailles peace conference of 1919, which was $125,000,000,000.

The peace conference at that time was unable to come to any agreement concerning these huge figures. The allies began to study the question more closely and in 1920 arrived at a total of $67,000,000,000 at the Boulogne conference, which was reduced later in the same year at the Spa conference to $55,000,000,000 after the Germans had announced they were unable to pay such an amount and had offered $7,500,000,000.

The reparations commission in 1921 fixed the total at $33,000,000,000 at which the German reparations debt figures remained theoretically after adopting the Dawes plan.

Flames Isolate Saghalien Village

Tokyo, June 1 (AP).—The village of Tomiai on the east coast of the island of Saghalien was surrounded today by the forest fire which has raged for the last week there. Its 1,000 houses were isolated but conditions in the town were not known here.

Elsewhere the forest fires have died down and the danger was considered past. Villagers were meeting to consider reconstruction. In Enatori alone damage was estimated at 6,000,000 yen (about $2,799,999).

RUMORED LINDBERGH'S ARE OFF GEORGIA COAST

Brunswick, Ga., June 1 (AP).—Rumors that Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh and his bride, the former Anne Morrow, were honeymooning off the Georgia coast still lacked confirmation today.

Newspapermen who sought to confirm the presence of the couple at the home of Howard E. Coffin on Sapelo Island, off the coast here, centered their search on locating the Coffin yacht Zapala, which put out Wednesday and has not been seen since.

Widen Overhead Crossing in Lloyd

Albany, June 1.—The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad Company has been directed by the Public Service Commission to prepare plans and specifications for the work of widening an overhead crossing in the town of Lloyd, Ulster county, over county highway 231. The order of the commission requires a widening to 40 feet, with a sidewalk five feet in width on each side.

The Department of Public Works is about to rebuild with concrete this road from the Ulster county line to Highland, a distance of eight miles, and lay a 30-foot pavement. Part of the roadway is to be 40 feet in width and bridges are being built with this end in view. The work of rebuilding the highway will be done by the Department of Public Works but the railroad company will do the widening work.

This road is one of the heaviest traveled highways on the west side of the river, a traffic count in August 1928 showing 5,569 vehicles passing in 12 hours. The estimated cost of the work is $13,000.

PREACHER HAS HAD UNUSUAL CAREER.

The preacher at Redeemer Lutheran Church Sunday evening will be the Rev. Cosimo Dell'Oso, who is pastor of Christ Italian Lutheran Church on East Side of New York. Pastor Dell'Oso, who is doing a splendid work among the unchurched Italians on the East Side, has had an unusual career. At one time he was an ardent Bolshevik and infidel, making known his views in newspaper articles as well as on soap boxes on the street corners. While in an army hospital recuperating from the "flu" he lost his brother and mother.

He had vowed earlier in life that when his mother died he would take his own life. He was seriously considering that step when he by chance started to read a novel which in some way made him think of his mother and the Bible. He read the Bible and was converted. Shortly thereafter he entered a seminary to prepare for the ministry. Pastor Dell'Oso was roommate of the pastor of Redeemer Church while in the Philadelphia Seminary. Pastor Brandorf will conduct the service Sunday evening. He will preach at the morning service on "Knowing No Fear."

Four members of the Senior Luther League are on their way to the state convention of the Luther League to be held in Rochester, May 20 to June 2. About 1,000 young people from all over the state are expected to attend.

Market for Fruits And Vegetables

New York, June 1.—(State Department of Agriculture and Markets.) The tone of the market on southern new crop potatoes was generally steady today, particularly on fine quality, well-graded consignments. The demand was moderate, active and wholesale trading on Carolina best No. 1 cobbles was $5.00-5.25 a barrel.

Old crop potatoes, however, met a very limited outlet, although prices were few and small. Maine Green Mountain potatoes in bulk peddled out principally at $2.50-2.75 per 150 pounds. All potato sections along the Atlantic coast were beginning shipments earlier than expected. The total forwardings of new potatoes increased to 1,900 cars last week, while movement of old stock held around 2,300 cars. South Carolina was leading in the south with nearly 1,100 cars for the seven-day period, while Maine was the principal shipping state of late crop potatoes with about 650 cars.

Strawberry receipts were much lighter today and values on good quality fruit tended slightly higher. The demand was a trifle better, New Jersey, Maryland and Delaware strawberries jobbed out from 5-13 cents a quart; occasionally some really fancy commanded 14-15 cents while inferior sold down to 5 cents. The strawberry crop in five late states is forecast at about 52,000,000 quarts, compared with 48,400,000 last season. Most of the increase is in New York and Ohio. The first cars are now moving from the 16,000,000 quart crop in the state of Washington. The general condition of the berry crop on May 15 was 50 per cent of normal, as against 74 per cent in late May, 1928.

Increased arrivals of California cantaloupes further weakened the market and prices were again lower. The demand, however, was fairly active. Standard crates of 45 cantaloupes sold as high as 7.25 and as low as 6.00. The Imperial Valley has become a center of great activity on cantaloupes. About 615 cars rolled from that section of California during the past week, compared with 50 the preceding week and 1,840 during the same period in 1928.

Shipments of citrus fruit were much lighter than they had been, as the Florida season neared an end. Celery forwardings decreased to 255 cars. California increased to 115, but Florida shipped only 140 cars. Apple movement was down to about 320 cars for the week. The combined forwardings of 29 fruits and vegetables for the whole country last week decreased slightly to 18,250 cars and were 1,500 lighter than during the same period last season.

OUR DAILY PATTERN.

A Pretty Summer Frock. 6501. Printed chiffon, and crepe are here combined, with a finish of velvet bands and bows. Crepe de chine is also suggested with lace and ribbon for trimming. A yoke cut in a deep point trims the front of the bloused waist. The skirt has three flounces used on a two piece foundation. The sleeves may be attractively short, in cap style, or in wrist length. A crush girdle topped by a ribbon band and finished with loops and ends of ribbon at the centre front, completes this charming effect.

The pattern for this model is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. To make the dress for a 12 year size as pictured in the large view will require 3 1/2 yards of material 29 inches wide. If made with long sleeves it will require 4 1/4 yards. For the yoke and girdle of contrasting material 1/2 yard is required 39 inches wide and cut crosswise. For trimming on yoke and girdle of velvet ribbon or banding 3 yards will be required.

A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in coin or stamps by the Pattern Department, The Freeman, Kingston, N. Y. Be sure to state the size wanted.

Fashion Book Notice. Send 15c in coin or stamps to The Freeman for our up-to-date Spring and Summer 1929 Book of Fashions showing color plates, and containing 500 designs of ladies' dresses and children's patterns, a concise and comprehensive article on dressmaking, also some points for the needle (illustrating 30 of the various simple outfits), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

ELEANOR GUNN ON FASHIONS

Modern Beach Costumes Have a Musical Comedy Cavety

New York—Beach costumes are getting so elaborate that one is reminded of the admonition to "Hank one's clothes on a hickory limb"—before one goes in the water. Smart shops are devoting a great deal of space to beach ensembles, accentuating pajamas in all their glory. These are cut almost to the waistline at the back so one may not get sunburned and are topped by huge straw floppy hats so one may not—such being the inconsistency of the mode. Trousers of the above-said gay harem regalia go to extremes by being both extremely long and extremely wide to be as brief as the law allows. One chooses between the pajama with its long trousers, and the bathing suit with shorts. In both instances to be smart one elects to wear a coat, its length governed by the trousers, which whether long or short are wide.

The Nautical Effect in Beach Wear is Revealed, in a Modified Form, in a Jersey Costume by Hermes of Paris. Consisting of Navy Trunks and White Top With Navy Appliques. Accompanied by a White Sleeveless Jacket Trimmed in Navy. The Belt Has a Brass Buckle Fastening. (Copyright, 1929, by Fairchild.)

Judging from shop windows and indoor displays the beach this summer will provide a setting for costumes gay and spectacular enough for a musical comedy, all of which is pleasing to the eye and not to be scored on the standpoint of immodesty since women are dressing more for the beach than has been their habit since swimming suits inspired their wearers to live up to them.

The addition of a large hat, with or without fringed edges is to be the final touch in picturesque beach attire, and dispenses with the necessity for a parasol, although huge beach umbrellas are a magnet always for smart groups. The various rubberized fabrics, not excepting gingham which are on the market find themselves approved for accessories, while sandals, or colored rubberized pumps with heels produce a dressy effect despite the absence of stockings.

Long rakish lines—114-inch wheelbase—a full size car in every respect.

Body by Fisher. All closed bodies are the latest product of the world's finest closed body craftsmen.

Non-glare Fisher VV type ventilating windshield—a brand new feature. With the tilted windshield the driver is not annoyed by headlights in back of his car or coming toward him—there are no distracting reflections.

New type mohair upholstery—has rubberized back—is waterproof and dustproof—a new development by Fisher, first shown on the Marquette—a great improvement.

Spacious rear seat—47½ inches in width—three adults can ride in perfect comfort.

Ample leg room in front and rear compartment—interiors are spacious and comfortable, no feeling of being cramped in this car.

Adjustable front seat—driver can adjust seat at will, for his personal comfort and convenience.

Remarkable power plant—motor develops 67.5 brake horsepower and provides the most brilliant performance ever achieved in this price field.

Piston displacement 212.8 cubic inches—a bigger displacement than any other car in the $1000 field, indicating power to meet every demand.

High-compression cylinder head—special non-detonating design.

Rubber engine mountings—at all four suspension points—shocks and jars to chassis frame are absorbed before they reach the engine.

Counter-balanced crankshaft—vibration eliminated and power delivered in a smooth, silent flow.

Automatic heat to carburetor—saves fuel and insures quick warm-up and easy starting in all seasons.

Thermotatically-controlled water cooling—insures normal operating temperature of motor in shortest possible time.

Completely sealed engine—oil filter, fuel strainer and air

31 seconds! Think of accelerating from 5 to 25 miles an hour in high gear up a long 11.6% grade! (The average road grade is 7%). Think of riding at 68 to 70 honest miles an hour with complete safety and comfort. That's the kind of pick-up and power and speed you need in a car nowadays—and that's what you get in the Marquette.

cleaner prevent dust, dirt and water from entering engine. Crankcase ventilator prevents oil dilution.

Forced lubrication—to all main bearings, connecting rod bearings, cylinder walls, camshaft bearings, and chain drive—the best engineering practice.

Crankshaft bearings stepped in size from front to rear—reducing vibration to a minimum.

Crankshaft weighing 75 lbs. is placed in both static and dynamic balance—to assure a smooth, quiet motor at all speeds.

Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers, both front and rear—perfect riding ease.

Four-wheel internal-expanding brakes—Duo-Servo type protected from dirt and water.

Brake cross shaft is equipped with three bearings as an added protection—providing useful braking power in every event. Controlled with self-aligning bearings which are not affected by chassis strains and twists.

Adjustable steering wheel—driver can have steering column raised or lowered to suit his particular preference. 16-gallon gasoline tank—enough capacity for long trips without the bother of refilling.

Hydrostatic gasoline gauge on dash—a much appreciated convenience.

Guide tilt-ray lamps—a fine car feature unusual in a car in the $1000 class.

New construction of headlamps—makes them dust-proof, keeping reflectors clean and lights efficient.

A host of other extraordinary features that combine to make the Marquette America's most complete car in the $1000 field.

There are so many surprising new things about the Marquette that you must see it to get a true impression of what a marvelous value Buick has created. On display today at Buick and Marquette dealers.

BROOKLYN BRIDGE

As far back as 1810, plans were made to construct the Brooklyn Bridge. Weir designs were drawn calling for a bridge fully as large as the Brooklyn Bridge of today, but without supporting structures at the sides. In 1870, the undertaking was taken seriously, and thru remarkable engineering feats the bridge of today was completed in 1883, at a final cost of $33,000,000.

Financial and Commercial

New York, June 1 (AP).—The stock market fell into considerable weakness and fluctuation and closed irregular after a quiet half-day session today. Although the reduction of $232,000,000 in brokers' loans caused a moderate upturn throughout the list in the first hour, operations were curtailed by the fact that many traders, driven from town by the hot weather, extended the Memorial Day holiday over the week end.

The rails were again well bought, as an increasing number of traders turned bullish on this section of the list on the theory that the O'Fallon decision, appearing in a falling market, had not been discounted. The utilities encountered some profit-taking on yesterday's sharp advance, but turned sharply upward again before the close. Radio and the motors, however, were heavy.

Sales approximated but 1,400,000 shares.

Marquette on Exhibition Here

Companion Car to Buick on Display at the Kingston Buick Company, 284 Clinton Avenue.

The new Marquette, companion car to Buick, which was shown today by Buick dealers all over the country, is now on display at the salesrooms of The Kingston Buick Company, Inc., 284 Clinton Avenue. Two models, a coupe and a four-door sedan were received Friday and placed on display. Built by General Motors in the Buick division factories at Flint the Marquette is the latest production of General Motors, entering the medium price field. The four-door sedan fully equipped and delivered sells in Kingston for $11,750.

Marquette is built by Buick engineers in Buick factories under the same supervision as the higher priced Buick cars. The wheel base of the new car is 114 inches and the motor is a six cylinder 3 1/2 inch bore with a 4 1/2 inch stroke developing 67 1/2 horsepower. Unlike the Buick motor the Marquette is powered with a L head motor instead of the famous valve-in-head motor of Buick. A 75 pound counterbalanced crankshaft, steel backed bearings, full pressure lubricating system and other highly developed engineering principles give this car a top speed of 70 miles an hour. The rear axle is a semi-floating pressed steel type. Hotchkiss drive, while long semi-elliptic springs fully equipped with four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers give the car unusual riding comfort. There are four wheel mechanical Duo-Servo internal expansion brakes and the cars are Duco painted.

Spring shackles are of a self-adjusting type and all models come fully equipped with gas pump and fuel strainer, air cleaner, oil filter, crank-case ventilator and automatic heat control to carburetor. The clutch is a single plate type with the standard three speed transmission and the motor is mounted in rubber.

Both models, the sedan and the coupe, were examined by a large number of people at the show rooms of The Kingston Buick Company, Inc. this morning when they were placed on view. The Marquette car will be sold and serviced by Buick dealers giving a price range for Buick built cars from the $1,000 class up to over $22,000.

Marquette cars have been on the General Motors proving grounds undergoing severe tests for months before being announced to the public. The tests show the car has unusual power, acceleration and riding qualities. In acceleration tests the car from a 10 mile an hour speed attained a speed of 60 miles an hour in 31 seconds and from 10 miles an hour to 40 miles an hour in 13.4 seconds. Flexibility combined with the 2,900 pounds of weight give great hill climbing ability.

The local Buick dealers expect to receive cars for delivery this month.

Society Notes

Double Wedding

There will be celebrated Sunday at one o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, a double wedding of much interest to many Kingstonians. At that time Miss Clara Belle Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Miller, will become the bride of Charles Arthur Jennings of New York city and his sister, Marion Alethea Miller, will become the bride of Martin Van Aken of Port Ewen.

Engagement Announced.

The engagement of Miss Teresa C. McMullen, graduate of Ellenville High School and former school teacher of that village, to Dr. John G. McNamara of Brooklyn, was announced there the past week at a luncheon given by her sister, Mrs. Ann Backman. Miss McMullen is a sister of William McMullen and Mrs. Frank B. Cox of Ellenville. The wedding is to take place in August.

Zirt-Rosenstock.

Miss Yetta E. Rosenstock, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hyman Rosenstock of Ellenville, and Abe Zirt were united in marriage by the Rev. Joseph Posner of the Bronx on Tuesday, May 28. Both young people are well known in Ellenville, having attended high school there. The bride conducted Yetta's Art Shoppe until last winter. Mr. Zirt was at one time connected with the E. Rosenstock & Son firm in Ellenville. After an extended honeymoon they will reside in New York city.

Most Bankrupt at Start.

Most of these commissions were bankrupt when they started. The Quebec government, for instance, gave the Liquor Control Commission no funds to start with; it borrowed from the banks.

Today it has a working reserve capital of $4,500,000, but as a matter of fact, it has much more. The central plant is written off at $1. The revenues of the province, moreover, have doubled since liquor came into effect.

But the federal government makes even greater profits from the liquor business. The income from excise taxes alone accounts for most of the federal surplus of $70,000,000, a surplus which is applied annually to the liquidation of the national debt. And these visible sources of public profit from the Canadian liquor industry represent only a portion of the real profits.

Tourists Are Industry.

The tourist traffic has become a leading Canadian industry. It is my own conviction the tourist figures are exaggerated. At best, the income from this particular business can only be approximated. The provincial and federal governments know, of course, how many cars enter the country each year and how many tourists arrive by train and boat.

What they do not know is how many of the automobiles belong to people who make the trip regularly for business purposes, and they can only make a guess at what these tourists spend.

Liquor Conditions In Canada and United States

Mrs. Sinclair Lewis Describes Situation in Canadian Cities Under System of Government Control and the Manner in Which the Dominion is Supplying America—16,000,000 Visited Canada in 1928—Profits in Millions.

With admissions by the State Department that the United States has been unable to block liquor smuggling from Canada, the Evening Post assigned Mrs. Sinclair Lewis, formerly Dorothy Thompson, to investigate conditions along the border. In a series of fourteen articles, of which this is the first, Mrs. Lewis describes the situation as she found it in the leading Canadian cities under the prevailing system of government control and the manner in which the Dominion is supplying thirsty American with liquor in ever increasing quantities.

By MRS. SINCLAIR LEWIS (Formerly Dorothy Thompson). Copyright, 1929, by N. Y. Evening Post, Inc.

The prosperity of the United States is due to prohibition, says Henry Ford.

Our notable and likewise unprecedented prosperity is due to government control of liquor, jubilates Canada.

And, some add, to American prohibition.

Canadian liquor control is a brilliant financial success. It is building roads, paying off national and provincial debts, supporting hospitals, contributing to public charities. As long as this is so, it will be hard to get other than a favorable judgment of it. Its moral and social results will be influenced by the taxpayers' satisfaction. Even hospitals and public charities will hesitate to blame the liquor control system for the poor drunkard, so long as the profits from liquor sales help pay their bills.

There are just two provinces in Canada which are technically dry—and they are the only provinces which have deficits in their budgets. They are Nova Scotia and Prince Edward's Island.

Profits in Millions.

These maritime provinces are too near sources of supply to be actually dry, but so far there has been sufficient public opinion to prevent the legalizing of the liquor traffic.

In presenting the budget to the provincial house in Halifax not long ago, the secretary-treasurer of Nova Scotia, E. N. Rhodes, pointed out that, although he made no recommendations on the matter, Nova Scotia, being under prohibition, was not in a position to benefit

Mrs. Smock: My dear, you've forgotten again that today is my birthday.
 Will: "Eh, listen, love, I know I forgot it, but there isn't a thing about you to remind me that you are a day older than you were a year ago."

Proves It Does.
 Referring to that which is of great importance to every business man, Printer's Ink says: "Isn't it funny? That so many business men will get up in the morning, clean their teeth with an advertised brush and advertised tooth paste, shave with an advertised razor, wash and shave with advertised soaps, put on advertised underwear, advertised hose, garter, shirt, collar and shoes, seat themselves at the table and eat advertised breakfast food and bread, put on an advertised hat and gloves, go to the station in an advertised motor car, give down letters to a typist who types on an advertised machine using advertised carbons, sign their letters with an advertised pen containing advertised ink, and then turn down a proposal to advertise on the ground that advertising doesn't pay."

A merchant or salesman who thinks he can't learn anything new is standing in the way of his own success.

Blessed are the poor and ignorant. They don't feel under obligation to raise a bedroom window.

Brown: "Are you wrapped up in your business?"
 Jones: "No, indeed, I make my paper."

Another thing in favor of the prevailing styles is that it is absolutely impossible for any little girl to outgrow her skirts.

 The telephone rings.
 Herbert Hoover—Go see who it is.
 Ike: If they want me tell 'em I'm in conference.
 Ike Hoover, at the phone—Hello.
 Feminine Voice—Hello, who is this?
 Ike—This is Hoover, the chief usher.
 Feminine Voice—Oh, Mr. Hoover! how fortunate that I should get you right on the phone, and how delightfully informal.
 Ike—But this is Hoover, the chief usher.
 Voice—Don't apologize, Mr. Hoover, I think it's just too perfectly ducky for you to come to the phone, and call yourself the chief usher! It's the cutest thing I ever heard of, for you are the chief usher of this country, aren't you?
 Ike—But, lady, I am trying to tell you—
 Voice—Now, Mr. Hoover, don't be so modest. I know that you don't like to be praised—
 Ike—But lady, this isn't Herbert Hoover, it's Ike Hoover talking to you.
 Voice, indignantly—Well, why didn't you say so? It seems to me that we taxpayers should get some sort of service for what we pay for government, and not have to explain everything to a lot of ignoramuses. Etc.

"What do they mean by the 'witching hour'?"
 "Don't you know? That's the hour when the wife greets you with 'Which story is it this time?'"

We note a story in an exchange of an "old fashioned rag-tacking party." We have a mild wonder as to where the rags come from these days, to be plentiful enough for that kind of a party.

A certain enterprising Ulster county poultryman has crossed his hens with parrots, to save time. He used to hunt around for the eggs, but now the hens walk up to him and say, "Hank, I just laid an egg. Go get it."

Protest all you please, but taxes and skirts will no doubt continue to go higher.

The lunch-looking man stopped at the lunch-counter and said: "Five ham sandwiches, please."
 "Will you eat them here or take them away?"
 "I hope to do both," was the reply.

Hercules Beat Tagging Major Gascos; Now Tie For First Place

By William J. Chipman.

(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

By exploding some of their dynamite in the fourth and fifth innings, the Hercules shelled Jimmy Doyle on the mound and defeated the Gascos 7-5, Friday evening at the Athletic Field to run their winning streak to three games and to tie the West Shore-Van Slyke for first place in the Industrial League.

Doyle was coasting along on a two-run lead and was turning back the powder men regularly, then all of a sudden in the fourth inning the tide was blown off and before the two innings were over Doyle was headed for the showers. Van Aken succeeded Doyle.

Dulin and Van Etten were the long-distance hitters of the game, but hitting honors went to Bob Slicker, who hit four singles for a perfect average for the day.

Ken Best, the winning pitcher, did not have an easy job by any means, being in trouble throughout the contest. He was not so liberal with his hits, but was very generous with his free tickets to first base, handing out seven. He also hit one batter. But it wasn't his fault all the time, his teammates could have supported him in better style.

Two runs in the first inning looked big for the Gascos the way Doyle was working in the early innings. Hoffman's walk and hits by Lynch and Slicker accounted for the two runs.

Going in the fourth inning with the score 2-0 against them Dulin gave the Hercules a life with a double to center field. Niles followed with a single to left field to score Dulin and pulled up at third when Quackenbush made a wild throw home. He scored on Mauer's single. Van Etten hit another double, Mauer stopping at third, and Ken Best was given a walk, but a fast double play and a fly ball to Wood in center field kept the score down.

Dulin and Van Etten repeated their feat of hitting doubles in the fifth, which coupled with Hertica's single and a fielder's choice sent three more runs across the rubber.

Mike Van Aken got in the picture in the last part of the fifth and required the last batter, but the Hercules continued to score in the sixth, taking advantage of Mike's wildness. They managed to shove two runs over on two walks, Avery's single and Hoffman's error.

The Gascos registered one in the fifth and threatened to win the game in the last inning when Best became wild.

Smith was walked, stole second, took third on a passed ball and scored on Quackenbush's single. Quackenbush also stole second and advanced to third on a passed ball. He registered on a wild pitch Van Aken and Hoffman also got on the bags, but Best regained control and fanned two of the batters and made another one hit a pop fly to him.

SIDELINERS.

Joey Hoffman caught Niles asleep in the last inning. Joey struck out, but Niles dropped the last strike and let Joey ramble to first base unopposed.

Both third basemen had errors when they meant runs.

It looks as if the Hercules and the Westrans will have to fight it out for honors in the first half, although Columbia-Talcott is still in the fight.

Joe Mareno Wins Over McVeigh in Final Bout Here

Nick Zinna Awarded Decision Over Pat Flannagan in Semi-Final—Dwight Loses to Reid—Joe Carpio Kays Jack Speers.

There was action galore at the armory fights Friday night, when the drill shed was well filled despite the high temperatures. It was not uncomfortable in the place and it was the fans likely would have paid no attention to the heat for everyone's attention was held by the high calibre of the fight program.

Results of the fights were as follows: Joe Carpio of this city knocked out Jack Speers, 138, of West Point in 2:30 of the first round; Stanley Reid, 140, of Newburgh handed a decisive lacing to Frenchy Dawg, 142, of this city in a six rounder; Nick Zinna, 137, of Kingston, carried the last four of his 10-round bout with Pat Flannagan, 135, to get the decision over the Brooklynite, who subdued Eddie Reilly in a very pleasing manner. Mickey McVeigh, 152, of Newburgh was knocked out in the seventh frame of his 10-round bout with Joe Mareno, 156, of New York. A crushing right to the button, that had Mickey stunned for a long time, did the trick after McVeigh apparently had Mareno in a bad way previous to his winning punch. After taking the count of nine, the Newburgher was in a bad way and Referee Walt Thompson stopped the fight, thus awarding it to Mareno on a technical knockout. McVeigh opened a terrible cut over Mareno's eye in the fifth and sixth and many believed that the bout would be stopped. The fight was one of the most thrilling ever staged here.

The following Sunday the All-Stars will start a series with a well known club, which will be announced next week.

Pan-Ams Beat Albany.

The Pan-Ams won their fifth straight game of the season at their own diamond Thursday, when they defeated the Albany Crescents, 9 to 4.

Kingston High Beat Cornwall

With good support, "Jack" Burgevin pitched a victorious game for the Kingston High School squad over Cornwall Military Academy, 11 to 6, on Memorial Day at the Cornwall diamond. The locals pounded two of the academy pitchers off the mound and it wasn't until the seventh inning when Carpenter went to the hill that Kingston was prevented from hitting.

The Kingston boys piled up a lead in the early chances they received. They brought one run across the plate in the first, two in the third, four in the fourth and two in the fifth and sixth. They had their batting eyes with them. Twelve hits summed up their work with the stick. While they were hitting singles and doubles, runs crossed the plate but as soon as they were prevented from using their bats so effectively so did the tallying cease.

When You Re-furnish

New furniture in a home often replaces much that is still good and useful—too good to throw away; just out-of-date, maybe.

So you store it out of the way in the attic to spoil in disuse and dust, when you might purchase something useful for the home with the money those stored pieces will bring. It is easy to find someone with use—and the money—for them. A Freeman Ad-taker will help you.

EDITH BARRETT TO PLAY AT ELVERHOJ THEATRE

When the Players' Club's great revival of "Becky Sharp" closes in New York in a few days, Edith Barrett, granddaughter of the great Lawrence Barrett, will leave that cast to take up her work as guest player with the Elverhoj Theatre at Milton-on-Hudson which opens an eight weeks' subscription season June 17 with a different play each week. Miss Barrett, who was the leading lady for Walter Hampden for two seasons, is one of the most beautiful women on the American stage today. In "Becky Sharp" she was entrusted with the prologue. Preparations are being rushed rapidly at Milton to permit the opening of the theatre on Monday evening, June 17, a week before the intercollegiate regatta at Poughkeepsie.

Ulster county may see something of Daniel Frohman this summer, as the New York producer has declared his intention of coming to Milton to follow the career of Ann Davenport Seymour, grandniece of Fanny Davenport, who has been his protegee. A different guest star will head each week's bill at Elverhoj. Madame Maria Ouspenskaya, formerly of the Moscow Art Theatre, one of the great character actresses in the world today, will appear in "The Romantic Young Lady" which scored such a hit last summer before Newport society at the Casino, Newport.

Sarah Stamm, executive secretary of the Actors' Theatre, long identified with the Shuberts, will be the business manager.

Play at Epworth Hall.

"The Tiger Earl," a three-act mystery play that will be presented at Epworth Hall, Friday, June 7, by the Epworth Players of Hudson, promises an evening long to be remembered by those who witnessed it, for while provoking many a laugh it is so composed as to keep one wondering what will happen next, from start to the finish.
